ANNOUNCEMENTS

AT THE AUDITORIUM, Fine Heliday Bill and Extra Show Today.

Most theaters curtail their programmes on a big holiday, as they figure that a certain amount of busiwill be done no matter what the show is, but the Auditorium does not do business that way. Instead of cutting down the show, an extra strong programme has been arranged for Phanksgiving. Four shows will be ogramme has been arranged for maksgiving. Four shows will be yen today, the doors will open for the thatinee at 1.30 p. m., and the second ghow in the afternoon will start about 8.36. The night shows will be as usual at 7 and 8.45.

an act that combines the utmost in harmony and dexterity.

Special photoplays have been accured including the Gaumont Weekly, which shows the last suffragette parade of 20,000 women in New York; also some great views of the famous Yale-Princeton football game, which was a 6-6 tie. Next Monday the biggest act that has ever played Norwich is booked for this house; ten people, special scenery, a brass band and many other features. Watch for the announcement of Monday's show—the best ever.

BREED THEATER. Special Holiday Programme of All-Feature Films for Today.

Owing to the fact that the Breed in owing to the fact that the breed is always crowded to the doors long before the time for the performance arrives, on holidays, the management has decided to begin today's matines at exactly 2 p. m. and the evening performance at 7 p. m., to avoid over-rowding the theater. As usual, only high class pictures will be shown, and the big bill is headed by the superb story of the coast entitled An Irish Girl's Love. This tells of the rivalry of two village belle and how she promised to wed the one who came to her first, a year from that day, and returned the little ring which she gave them. A shipwreek brings her favorite and she hastens to the shore to find her dead lover and to takes the ring from the cord and his neck and places it on her first, sending word to the other lover of Brian has returned.

Miss Goldle Rinchart opens at the ts today in a very laughable skit of His Verst Love. Miss Rine-was zur five years leading woman of years was with Madame a. Miss Rinehart works with Arthur Van; the latter name may not mean anything to you now, but when it is explained that it is the profes-sional name of "Doe" Kinney, who comes now to play his first engage-ment in his home town, perhaps you will be anxious to see the work of this high class team who have played the big time and repeat. Wilson and Wil-son are quite the classiest team we nave had the chance to land in some time. Pisano & Co. are said to be the world's greatest sharpshooters and the new pictures are of the regular Davis brand and will be thrown upon the screen as only where every modern improvement is used it is possible to

There are to be four shows, two aftermoon and two evening.

George Peterson, member of a ffrm. oing a confectionery business in this ity, has just returned from the scene war in the domain of the Turkish tan and has some interesting tales tell of how rapidly important and history-making episodes are transpir-ing in the fighting zone. Mr. Peter-son had troubles of his own in getting out of the country. Mr. Peterson's old home is on the island of Mitilene, he is a citizen of the United States, He was born under Turkish rule, but is of Greek parentage. Trouble over his passports threatened to make matters difficult for Mr. Peterson with the Turkish officials, who tried to prevent his departure, but upon his At St. Joseph's church in Dayville threat to make complaint to the Brit-Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock Miss ish consul, there being no representa-tive of the American government at and Thomus P. Ryan, Pomfret parties, re-cently tried in the superior court here, a decision has been handed down whereby the plaintiff is to be allowed to recover $1,248.53 from the defendant. The suit grew out of a division of opinion as to how payment was to be made for work done by Mr. Rooney on a house owned by the defendant, the question being as to whether the work was done by contract or by day labor, Mr. Rooney claiming the latter to be the case. Torrey and Geissler represented the plaintiff, Searls and Russell the defendant.

POETRY

OUR THANKSGIVING DAY.

The harvest yielded bounteous store, In spite of all our trembling fears Lest this from drought and storms, might be
One of the fruitless, barren years. But kindly sun and rain and dew Have ministered to all our need. The fertile earth has given full store Her countless multitudes to feed.

No pestilence has stormed our shores.
No wars have racked our hearts with fears:
Strength has been given for minor ills,
And smiles have followed transient tears.

And say with heartfelt gratitude:
"This year has been a goodly rear."
-Emma A. Lente.
